The Enemy at Florence.

The Huntsville Advocate furnishes the following:

We learn from private sources that, when the three Yankee gunboats visited Florence, about 25 Yankees went ashore, broke open the railroad warehouse, abstracted a small quantity of Government stores—bacon, flour and molasses—and some private property of the same character, and put them aboard their boats.—Several citizens, with a flag of truce, went down and told them that they were removing private property as well as public property. They replied that they did not intend to interfere with private property, or to attack the town, unless resisted. If resisted, they would shell the town. They invited the gentlemen aboard the boat, but they prudently declined. They restored the private bacon, &c., to the warehouse, but carried off the Government stores, without any further depredation, at that point.

We learn further that they attached their telegraphic batteries to our wires at Florence, aud, it is believed, sent some messages, which mystified our citizens by their contradictory character. They doubtless, received information from our side by the same means.

Heavy Taxation in Boston.

The city of Boston, it appears, groans under heavy taxes. The Advertiser calls to remembrance the halcyon days of 1845, when the rate of taxation was only $5 70 on the thousand, and contrasts that time with the present, with the rate fixed at $8 90, and speaks of the increase of city expenditures in the interval as something appalling. It says:

The city debt proper is rolling up with a rapidity which ought to alarm every property holder, and in a way which no ingenious shuffling with the water debt as has been attempted, can disguise. The debt, which was a million and a half in 1849, was two millions in 1856, four and a half millions in 1859, and nearly five and a half in 1861.

BE NOT DISCOURAGED.—We advise our readers to read the thirteenth and fourteenth Chapters of the Second Book of Chronicles, in the Bible. They will find in them food for reflection and encouragement. It gives the history of a battle between Abijah, King of Judah, and Jeroboam. The former had 400,000 men, and the latter 800,000 men. The army of Jeroboam ambushed the forces of Abijah, and attacked them in front and rear.—Abjah cried unto the Lord for help.—With a shout the followers of Abijah entered into battle, and routed the enemy, slaying 500,000 of them. Asa, son o Abijah, went out with an army of 500,000 men to give battle to Zerah, the Ethiopian, with an army of one million, or a "thousand thousand men and three hundred chariots," as the Scriptures have it.—Asa cried unto the Lord, and said—"Lord, it is nothing with thee to help whether with many, or with them that have no power; help us, O Lord our God, for we rest on thee; and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let no man prevail against thee." The Ethiopians were defeated with great slaughter. Let the people of the Confederate States profit by these examples.—They teach a salutary lesson.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, Feb. 13th.

A TAX ON NEWSPAPERS.—From witnesses in a recent case before the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond, our reporter of "the Courts" came into possession of the following information, establishing the fact that the proprietor of the large hotels of this city are levying a regular tax on the sale of newspapers. The bonus paid by the newsboy for the privilege of selling the city papers in the Columbus Hotel is fifteen dollars per month. The boy at the American pays twenty-six dollars per month; at the Spotswood house, thirty dollars per month; and at the Exchange hotel, the enormous sum of forty-four dollars per month is demanded and paid.

[Richmond Examiner.

The Lynchburg Republican says that on Friday, a party of Arkansas soldiers, after arriving at Liberty, on the Tennessee Railroad, arrested the conductor and put him under guard—swearing most solemnly that if he failed to make the connection at Bristol, they would kill him and all connected with the train. The conductor was allowed to telegraph for an extra engine, by the aid of which he succeeded in making the connection, and thereby releasing himself from custody.

Robert Gray, of Graysville, Ga., sends us the following recipe for the effectual cure of that "red demon of the nursery," scarlet fever:

"Take one tablespoonful of tar and add the yellow or yolk of one egg to it; mix the two well together and spread on cotton cloth, and bind to the bottoms of the feet, the same to be placed between two thin cloths and bound around the throat—to be removed every morning until the disease disappears; a half dozen applications generally cures the disease. New tar is preferable, but old will answer. I have treated several desperate cases with the above and know it to be a certain cure."

RANSOM'S CAVALRY—MEN WANTED.—Col. Ransom having received orders from the Commander-in-Chief to increase his splendid Cavalry corps, will receive 450 men for that service. All arms and equipments of the best description will be promptly furnished. A bounty of $50 will be paid to each man. Here is a chance to join the best Cavalry corps on the continent. All men who desire spirited, active service, under an accomplished and gallant leader, will rally to this call.

Editors throughout the State will do service to the State and Confederacy by giving this notice extensive circulation.—Raleigh State Journal.

Having received authority from the Governor of North Carolina to enlist men for the war, all those desirous of entering the service would do well to call upon me at my office and sign the roll. COFFEE! COFFEE!

IS MANUFACTURED AT M. KELLY'S Southern Excelsior Coffee Mill, Raleigh, and is equal to the best coffee. It is made of coffee, rye and chickory, and is roasted in a cylinder by machinery, and therefore is better parched than can be done by hand. Chickory is not so well known in Dixie land, but in Europe they use it to give a superior flavor to the coffee. In Germany they call it sagorah, and here we call it dandalion. In England it is so highly appreciated that they lay a duty of two pounds ten shillings sterling per hundred weight to protect the growers of it. We annex Professor Emmons' certificate to show that there is no humbug, but it is what it is represented to be:

To MR. KELLY, Sir: I have tested and used the two samples of manufactured coffee—the labelled Java and Laguira. The first equals the Rio coffee of the shops, and seems to be equally good with that kind. * * * I am satisfied that they contain nothing which is injurious to the system, and may be economically and safely used as substitutes for coffee.

E. EMMONS.

This coffee is put up in pound papers, and packed in boxes containing thirty-six pounds, unless otherwise ordered.

All orders promptly attended to by addressing M. KELLY, Raleigh, N. C.

PROSPECTUS OF THE HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER, DEVOTED TO POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS. PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEARTT. HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

PROSPECTUS OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum	$400
Weekly	200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. [illegible] no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.........$100
Each subsequent insertion.........25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

We offer to advertisers the inducement of sending their favors to be read by a numerous and influential class of readers, both in town and country. The Southern Guardian presents great advantages as an advertising medium; its circulation is large, and is daily and rapidly extending, particularly in the middle and upper districts of the State.

JOB PRINTING.

The Job Office is thoroughly appointed in all respects, and fitted for every description of Job Work. In connection with it is a Bindery.

The Southern Guardian is devoted to the maintenance of the rights, honor and interests of the South under the Constitution. While it is willing to sustain the Democratic party whenever its course shall command approval by its justice, it yet more confidently and distinctly relies upon the people of the South; and as the best preparation for the contest which is even now upon us, it will zealously labor to effect union and co-operation amongst ourselves.

In the management of this journal, the early production of every class of news from all parts of the world, the lessons of virtue and morality, the interests of education, agriculture, commerce, and manufactures,—will be kept prominently in view, and no effort will be spared to make it, in all respects, an acceptable fire-side visitor.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER. THE TIMES: A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro, $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. B. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald.

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers."—Raleigh Standard.

A Paris correspondent of the New York Herald says that the Emperor is ready to recognize, and is inviting England to act first. It says that Palmerston is afraid to make the first move.

The Sumter is at Gibraltar. A second great commotion has been caused among the American ship masters at Marseilles on account of the Sumter.

The American question, as affecting the supply of cotton, has been debated in the Manchester Chamber of Commerce. The great desire is manifested that the war should hasten to a close.

The sales of cotton in Liverpool on the 1st February were five thousand bales. Prices are unchanged. Consols 93.

Confiscation of Yankee Property—Important Act of Congress.

From the Richmond Examiner.]

We learn that Congress has, in secret session, finally passed a bill amending the sequestration law, and invigorating it by a number of new provisions.

We are enabled to give a summary of the most important provisions of this law. It provides, in the first section, that all the estates, property, effects of alien enemies, shall be collected and sold, except that no debt or chose in action shall be sold; and the fund shall be immediately paid into the Confederate States Treasury.

APPLICATION OF THE SEQUESTRATION FUND.

The law requires that the fund realized as above shall be equally applied to losses sustained by the acts of confiscation by the enemy.

It provides also that its application may be extended to other losses on the part of faithful citizens of the Confederacy, which the future act of Congress may establish as proper cases for indemnity.

WHAT ALIENS EXEMPT--MARRIED WOMEN, &c.

The act defines in separate classes those who, although living out of the Confederacy, are not to be considered as aliens within its provisions. Among the exempts are enumerated all persons residing in the Northern States who have in good faith attempted to remove their domicil to the jurisdiction of the Confederate States, but have been prevented from doing so by the force or power of the enemy.

Another exempt class is that of married women, natives of the Confederacy, whose husbands have not voluntarily contributed to the war upon the South.

HEIRS OF ALIENS TO BE PROTECTED.

Where the next of kin of aliens in the ascending or descending lines are faithful citizens of the Confederacy they may have decreed to them the estate of the alien, as if he were dead and intestate, on paying costs in the Confederate States District Court, taking the property subject to all debts due from the alien to faithful citizens of the Confederate States.

PARTNERSHIPS—REAL ESTATE CONTRACTS—RECEIVERS, &c.

In cases of all partnerships in which aliens are interested, it is provided that proceedings shall be taken against the resident partner in the same manner as against a surviving partner in event of a dissolution of partnership.

In contracts for the sale of real estate, made with an alien before the 21st of May, 1861, the law allows the Receiver to execute the contract on receiving the amount of purchase money, which is forthwith to be sequestrated.

The law makes some changes with respect to the compensation of Receivers and their accounts; their compensation to be settled in the discretion of the court by such analogies as may be furnished in the rates paid executors and administrators in the respective States, and the provision being repealed which requires Receivers to keep separate accounts of every alien estate.

All debtors to aliens are required to report under oath, to the Receivers within three months from the passage of the act.

From Mobile.

The Mobile Advertiser of Sunday says: Our city was full of rumors yesterday of warlike operations at Pensacola. While we write we have no definite information. We have made arrangements to give our readers the earliest intelligence of events over there. The stories afloat were that Fort Pickens was picking up courage for another play of ball, and that all the furloughed men of the Pensacola Confederate army were ordered back instanter. The mail boat yesterday afternoon took off a number of them.

At home the work of defence goes on vigorously. Gen. Bragg, it would seem, does not intend to rely exclusively for the safety of the city committed to his military care upon the strong works at the mouth of the Mobile Bay, but is actively pushing a line of interior defences so as to give the Feds two gunlets to run. By the time they pierce both, somebody will "be hurt."

We are gratified to learn that in a few days arms will arrive for all our troops. Meantime, let the shot-gun companies imitate the good example of Capt. Dolhonde's Chasseurs, and make up plenty of cartridges for their variegated guages. Things generally are getting lively, and and produce an exhilarating stir of the sluggish blood.

CHARLOTTE.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1862.

A Terrible Defeat.

The news published under our telegraphic head is well calculated to arouse every true man throughout the South.

Fort Donelson has been captured by the enemy.

Those brave men—Pillow, Buckner and Floyd,—have been forced to surrender their commands (15,000 strong,) to the cursed Yankee, after burning their last charge of powder.

The above is the most important news received since the war commenced and we are sickened in giving to it publicity.

Fiddling.

We regret that while our country is invaded, our towns and cities are being destroyed by the Yankee invaders and our mothers, daughters and sisters are subjected to insults and brutal outrages, the sovereignty of the people, in Convention assembled, are content with begging men to volunteer in their defence.

That policy, if not designedly adopted, gives license to a certain class of men who ought to be in the field fighting for their property, to remain at home unconcerned about the ultimate result.

The only equitable way is to order a Draft in every town, village and county, immediately.

To Arms! To Arms!

If Gov. Clarke will not bring out our fighting men and the convention will not see that the State is defended, it is full time that the military take possession of Raleigh, drive out both the Governor and the members of the Convention and proclaim a military Dictator. The old women have been at their knitting long enough.

The following places have been determined upon by Secretary Memminger for the location of agencies for the Confederate produce loan: Galveston, New Orleans, (to include the State of Mississippi,) Memphis, Mobile, Apalichicola, Augusta, Charleston, Wilmington and Richmond.

THE YANKEES propose a tax of three cents each on all telegraphic messages except those on the business of the Government or of the company owning the line, and except also news and Congressional reports for the press.

The statement of Secretary Seward, implying that the American Government held themselves bound, after subjugating the rebels, to restore the destroyed harbors or open better ones, added considerable to the disquiet of Federal bondholders, since it makes a further indefinite addition to the prospects of the ultimate amount of debt.

It is believed that even if the War was wound up immediatevy, the debt of America would, at the rate of interest that must be paid, involve an annual charge on the revenue eqnal to more than half the total required for the national debt of England.

Important Arrest—A Federal General charged with Treason.

Brigadier-General Stone was arrested in Washington on Tuesday morning, at two o'clock, by a posse of the Provost Marshal's force and sent to Fort Lafayette, where he arrived yesterday afternoon. The charges against General Stone appear to be of a very serious character. The are embodied in the following summary: First, for misbehavior at the battle of Ball's Bluff; second, for holding correspondence with the enemy before and since the battle of Ball's Bluff, and receiving visits from rebel officers in his camp; third, for treachously suffering the enemy to build a fort or strong work since the battle of Ball's Bluff, under his guns without molestation, fourth, for a treacherous design to expose his force to capture and destruction by the enemy, under pretence of orders for a movement from the commanding general, which had not been given. It is said that a court martial will be called to try these charges against the general.

The War in the far West—Movements in New Mexico.

Late dispatches from New Mexico state that the rebels 2,500 strong, are within thirty miles of Fort Craig, but that Colonel Camby felt able to make a successful resistance. It is reported that a considerable force of Texans are advancing up the Rio Pecos to attack Fort Union. An express had been sent to Denvor for reinforcements, and the Colorado troops would probably march immediately. Martial law has been proclaimed in that Territory and all able-bodied men drafted to serve in the militia.

Slavery and the English Philanthropists.

The English "philanthropists" are deserting "Uncle Tom." The London Athenæum declares its conviction that the system of slavery at the South is more beneficent to the negro than freedom at the North and therefore by no means so wrong as it has been thought. The Saturday Review ridicules the anti-slavery sentiment of Great Britain in one column, while it denounces popular government as mob law in the next. The London Review argues that the negro ought not to be freed, because, "left to the free indulgence of his natural inclinations, he will not labour at all."

General L. Pope Walker, late Secretary of War, has gone to take command of the forces at Decatur.

Our Country Invaded.

It is requested by many citizens that there be a meeting of the citizens of Mecklenburg at the Court House, in Charlotte, on Wednesday the 19th, to consult on matters that deeply interest every individual in the county and State. A general attendance is earnestly requested.

MANY CITIZENS.

Acknowledgement.

The Treasurer of the Town of Charlotte acknowledges the receipt of ten dollars from J. McDONALD & SON of Concord, to be applied to the comfort of the soldiers wounded in the recent Rail Road collision.

THOS. W. DEWEY, Town Treas.

Evacuation of Bowling Green.

The Nashville correspondent of the Memphis Avalanche of Saturday writes:

Johnston is falling back from Bowling Green. It is not known whether he will stop at Gallatin or come to Nashville.—This movement is necessary, and no doubt very proper under the circumstances.

The enemy had left their position in front of Johnston, and evidently intended a flank movement, with view of cutting off his communication.

The same correspondent in a postscript says:

Bowling Green was burned to the ground this morning by the Confederates.

The Fight at Fort Donelson—Exciting Rumors.

There was considerable elation yesterday morning (says the Richmond Examiner of 17th inst,) at the news of our victory at Fort Donelson, and the apparently decisive repulse of the enemy there. The dispatch of General Johnston, received at the War Department, stated that the loss of the enemy was about one thousand killed and wounded, and three hundred taken prisoners, also that we captured eight pieces of artillery.

Further rumors were circulated yesterday, which depressed this elation to a feeling of deep anxiety as to the final result. It is almost impossible to enumerate the various and changeful reports which were circulated through the streets.

It is ascertained that dispatches were received yesterday by the government, the contents of which have not exactly transpired; and that a Cabinet session was called last night. From all that can be learned, it appears that the enemy had been considerably reinforced by their gunboats, and that an immediate renewal of their attack was expected. The most consistant account is that the enemy had been reinforced by three thousand men.

Dispatches we understand have been received giving the intelligence that General Hardee had reached Fort Donelson with large reinforcements. This intelligence is considered to be reliable.

There appears to be no doubt that the sequel of the conflict at Fort Donelson is not yet demonstrated. The enemy have facilities for reinforcements by a water avenue of communication. It is said, however, that we will be able to throw reinforcements into the Fort from the several points of Hopkinsville, Russelville, Bowling Green, and Nashville, and that we already have congregated a force sufficient, in point of numbers, to defy the enemy and to hold the issue in expectation.

Stop the Thief.

TAKEN from my Livery Stable in Raleigh, a red roan Horse, and buggy. Said horse has the "scratches" in the left hind foot, very bad, so much so that he is lamed; and he is spavined in one of his hind legs, but which is not recollected.—The man is a small, thick-set man, with fair skin and black hair, rather long. He had a black suit of clothes, well worn, and looked as if he had been a fireman or engineer on the Railroad, as his clothes were slick and greasy. I will give fifty dollars reward for the information enabling me to recover my horse and buggy.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wharfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage. JAMES L. GANTT.
Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY
A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Markets and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

Terms—Payable in Advance.

DAILY, per annum	$10.00
TRI-WEEKLY	5.00

Clubs will be Furnished as follows:

Five Copies of the DAILY for	$40.00
Five Copies of the TRI-WEEKLY	20.00

The name of no person out of Charleston will be entered on our books, unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance. Nor will orders from without the city to publish Advertisements, Marriage Notices, or Obituaries, be attended to, unless the cash, or an acceptable City reference, accompany the order. Money may always be forwarded at our risk in registered letters.

POSTMASTERS are authorized to act as our Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money, and by sending us Five DAILY subscribers, with $50 enclosed—or Five TRI-WEEKLY subscribers, with $25 enclosed, will be entitled to an extra copy; or if preferred, they may retain Twenty per cent. of the pre-payments, for their trouble and in lieu of the extra paper.

Out of South Carolina, no person whatever is authorized to collect debts already due to the MERCURY.

In the State Mr. SAMUEL E. BURGESS is our regular Agent to make collections and procure new [illegible] and subscriptions.

In Charleston, Mr. JAMES D. BUDDS, connected with the office, is our regular authorized collector who has full power to receipt for money now due the paper and to contract for future business.

Subscribers and others, in debt to us, are urgently requested to send in our dues by mail at the earliest period. By so doing, they will save us twenty per cent, an amount equivalent to a principal portion of the profits.
